

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2004

Hot list

WHAT WE'RE OBSESSED WITH THIS WEEK

By MAUREEN CALLAHAN

AP/2

1 U2 custom designed iPods

CONTINUING to mix art and commerce without ever quite seeming to sell out, U2 has unveiled its new 20-gig iPod. It's got a black-and-red color scheme and

4 High art

NEW York artist Jenny Holzer — famed for her Times Square marquee displays — unveils her latest effort, "For New York," this weekend. Today and tomorrow, from 11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., aircraft will fly along the Hudson River, trailing banners with sayings by Holzer, such as: "abuse of power comes as no surprise."

3 Chocolate factory

RANDOM House is releasing a 40th anniversary edition of Roald Dahl's "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory," and Johnny Depp has recently been spotted in costume as Willy Wonka, in Tim Burton's now-shooting remake of the film, based on the book. Too exciting.

