Other details: It was a glamorous night at the 4th annual Creative Time 2013 Gala honoring artist and filmmaker Julian Schnabel. Set against the beautiful backdrop of the Manhattan skyline, the event was the first (and possibly last) to be held at the historic Domino Sugar Factory in Williamsburg. Guests enjoyed an outdoor bar and reception before heading in to dine on kale salad, truffle burrata, wine courtesy of Mario Batali, and Patron Tequila cocktails. Inside, the Domino Sugar Factory was transformed into a decadent art space and dining hall, showcasing a number of Schnabel's works and sculptures. The evening finished with a rocking dance party that went long after the dining had ended.
