Creative Time Gala Honoring Julian Schnabel

TANGENT

"I was once a caddy in Nebraska. I hated that job; I hate golf as a result. I also got a job at a lumberyard. It wasn't bad, but I worked with a son of a bitch. When that job was over, the last day, I said, 'Your parents owe the world a retraction.' He didn't get it, but the people around us laughed."

—Dick Cavett, on his blue-collar work experience
